Appealing a denial of the dental claim

If you disagree with any part of our decision, you or your authorized representative may ask for an appeal review. You need to fax or mail your appeal to us within 180 days of receiving this notice. Our contact information is available on the first page of this notice. Please include your name, claim number and date of service.

To assist in the appeal review, you need to explain the reasons why you disagree with our decision. You may also include new information – clinical or otherwise – that supports your dental claim. A Sun Life appeal consultant, not involved in the initial review, will make a decision using all available information.

You have the right to request at no cost:

- Copies of any guidelines we used in making our decision
- An explanation of the clinical review if our initial decision was due to dental necessity, experimental treatment or a similar exclusion
- The identity of any dental experts whose advice we considered
- A copy of your dental claim file

We will make a decision within 60 days of our receipt of the request for appeal review.

If, upon appeal review, your claim is denied, you may have the right to bring an action under Section 502(a) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, if your claim is governed by that Act.

We are available to answer questions you may have about your claim.
