New Hampshire residents: If you wish to take this matter up with the New Hampshire Insurance Department, it maintains a service division to investigate complaints at 21 South Fruit Street, Suite 14, Concord, New Hampshire 03301. The New Hampshire Insurance Department can be reached, toll free, by dialing 1-800-852-3416.

Ohio residents: In reviewing your complaint, the company will follow the complaint procedure provided to you with your plan of insurance.

Utah Residents: For fully insured Utah residents, this Explanation of Benefits serves as notification of a possible adverse benefit determination, relating to benefits under the claimant's plan. As outlined by R590-192, any amounts not paid in full are considered an adverse benefit determination. An explanation of why that amount was not covered is provided under "Notes".

The claimant has the right to request a review of an adverse benefit determination. If the claimant believes that this claim has been incorrectly processed, or believes that additional information can be provided that may alter the initial processing of this claim, the claimant may ask to have it reviewed. For a review of the adverse benefit determination, the claimant or an authorized representative may submit written comments, documents, records, and/or other information relating to the claim to: Grievance Administrator, PO Box 31379, Salt Lake City, UT 84131-0379.

The appeal must be submitted within 180 days of receiving this Explanation of Benefits. The claimant or the claimant's authorized representative will be notified of the decision: for services that have not yet taken place, within 30 days or less after receiving the appeal or for services that have been rendered, within 60 days or less after receiving the appeal. If additional information is needed to make a determination, the claimant or the claimant's authorized representative will be notified of additional information that is necessary.

If the claimant is not satisfied with the outcome of the appeal, the claimant has the right to bring civil action as provided in Utah law.

Washington Residents: If you have questions or concerns about the actions of your insurance company or agent, or would like information on your rights to file an appeal, contact the Washington state Office of the Insurance Commissioner's consumer protection hotline at 1-800-562-6900 or visit www.insurance.wa.gov. The insurance commissioner protects and educates insurance consumers, advances the public interest, and provides fair and efficient regulation of the insurance industry.

Wisconsin residents: Please refer to the Wisconsin Grievance and Complaint Procedure Rider section of the Certificate for more information on your grievance and complaint rights. The section contains valuable information regarding the grievance review process.
